

Home Journal.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 23, 1873.

Terms: $2 per annum.

RELIGIOUS.—Preaching every 2d Lord's Day, at Decherd, by Rev. J. M. F. Smithson, of the Christian Church.

The prospects for a good wheat crop continue fair.

The weather the past week has been cool and pleasant.

DIED, in Nashville, on the 18th instant, Sophia S. Searey, wife of Geo. E. Purvis, of the Republican Banner.

MARRIED, in Marion, Ala., on Thursday morning, April 17th, Lee R. McKee, of Selma, to Miss Fannie Brazleton.

We are pained to learn that Judge P. Turney is suffering from inflammatory rheumatism at Jackson. He has been confined to his room for several days.

One or two communications, and several items of a local nature are unnoticed in this week's Home Journal because the editor has been absent for several days.

Read the advertisements of T. E. Winstead & Co., and we think that when you visit the Exposition in Nashville you will be certain to buy $5 worth of goods, and get a ticket free.

The Tullahoma Independent has ceased to exist. Its editor and proprietor will remove to Fayetteville, Tenn., where, early in next month, they will begin the publication of a new paper to be called "The Fayetteville Express."

W. W. Garner & Co., still keep up a fresh supply of Groceries, of every description, which they sell at the very lowest living prices. Also, a fine stock of Dry Goods, Boots, Shoes, Hats, Caps, &c., which they are selling as low as the lowest. Give them a call, if you want to get good and cheap bargains.

Some of those new-fangled dorsal humps for female ornamentation were visible on our streets last week. They make one look like the clown, when he gets both his loose ends out at the same opening of a headless barrel, and hops around the ring to the intense delight of all the youngsters and niggers.

Correspondence solicited from all parts of the county. We desire to know about the crop prospects especially. Our friends, and the citizens generally, of the various points throughout the county, are invited to forward to us, each week, for publication, all local events transpiring in their immediate localities—such as marriages, deaths, accidents, incidents, &c.

Read the advertisement of Martin & Thompson in this issue. Notwithstanding the fact that they were sufferers at the late fire in Salem, "Phoenix-like," they have risen from the ashes, and are themselves again. We recommend them to our readers as worthy and reliable patronage.

The recent snap of cold weather has caused a good deal of sickness, of one kind or other, though nothing serious. Just when there is so much talk of Meningitis, it is supposed that everybody who is taken the least ill is attacked by this disease. To quiet the fears of the timid, it may as well be stated that not a single case of Meningitis has occurred in this place.

We have just returned from Nashville where urgent business detained us. But so very pleasant it is to board at the St. Cloud Hotel that we feel no regret because of our detention. Everything is so neat about this house, the proprietor and clerks all so accommodating, and the servants so obedient, that we feel it our duty to speak a few words in praise of them. When you go to Nashville be sure to stop at the St. Cloud, corner of Sumner and Church streets, and our word for it, you will be pleased.

A most singular and quiet revival of religion has been prevailing in this town for about a month, within which time more than forty persons have made professions of religion at their homes, and have been immersed by Prof. Dix. The interest seems mostly confined to the students of Mary Sharp College, while some of the good citizens of Winchester are among the number. There still seems to be much anxious feeling, but no excitement. A calm, persistent design continues and we may expect many more additions to the church before the serious interest now felt passes away.

In last week's issue we alluded to a change in some of our Nashville advertisements. We especially meant to call attention to the fact that Bradford Nichol, the great furniture dealer, had associated with him Mr. J. M. McGavock. Two worthy gentlemen never formed a partnership. To most of our business men Bradford Nichol is well known, hence the reason why our people, when they want to buy furniture, send their orders to "Brad." He not only has always kept the largest and most select stock of furniture in the city, but what he tells you in trading may be implicitly relied upon. And we believe Mr. McGavock, his partner, is about as clever as Brad. Both won friends as soldiers in behalf of Southern independence, and are going to conquer the hearts of men in these times of peace. Go and trade with them when you want furniture.

IDEAL GIRLS.—It is a painful spectacle in families where a mother is the drudge, to see the daughters, elegantly dressed, reclining at their ease with their drawing, their music, their fancy work, and their reading, beguiling themselves of the lapse of hours, days, and weeks, and never dreaming of their responsibilities; but as a necessary consequence of neglect of duty, growing weary of their useless lives, laying hold of every newly-invented stimulant to arouse their drooping energy, and blaming their fate, when they dare not blame their God, for having placed them where they are. These individuals will often tell you, with an air of affected compassion (for who can believe it real), that poor mamma is working herself to death, yet no sooner do you propose that she should assist her than they declare she is quite in her element, in short, that she would never be happy if she had only

CHEAP GOODS.

WE WOULD TAKE THIS METHOD of informing our friends and the public that we have again, after the fire in Salem, rebuilt and established ourselves in business, and have received one of the largest and best-assorted stocks of that we have ever offered to the public. We intend to sell the best brands of goods at 12½ cents per yard, and everything else in our line AS CHEAP AS THEY CAN BE BOUGHT IN THE STATE.

STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS

We return our thanks to our numerous friends and customers for their patronage in the past, and solicit a continuance of the same in the future, assuring them that we will extend any accommodation that we are able to do.

Having associated with us Mr. SAMUEL PEARSON in the Shoe and Hat business, who is well known to you all as one of the best and cheapest Shoemakers and Hatters in the county of Franklin, we hope his old friends will still stand by him, as he will have full control of this department.

MARTIN & THOMPSON.

Non-Resident Notice.

W. C. Hamilton & Co., et al. vs Wm. Crane et al.

Upon motion of complainants, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Clerk & Master, from the Attachment Injunction Bill, and affidavit thereto, in above cause, that the defendants, L. Pappeler & Co., "Lawrence Iron Works," McStradler & Co., and R. W. Booth & Co., are non-residents of the State of Tennessee, so that the ordinary process of law cannot be served upon them. It is therefore ordered that publication be made for four consecutive weeks in the Home Journal, a newspaper published in Winchester, Tennessee, requiring said non-resident defendants to appear on or before the 4th Monday in June next, before the Chancery Court at Winchester, Franklin county, Tenn., and plead answer or demur to complainant's bill, or the same will be taken for confessed, and set for hearing ex parte as to them. Witness my hand, at office, in Winchester, this April 15th, 1873.

T. H. FINCH, C. & M.

Non-Resident Notice.

Lucy Lasater et al. vs J. F. Lasater and others.

On motion of complainant, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Clerk & Master, from the Petition in the above cause, which is sworn to, that the defendant, J. F. Lasater, is a non-resident of the State of Tennessee, so that the ordinary process of law cannot be served upon him. It is therefore ordered that publication be made for four successive weeks in the Home Journal, published in Winchester, Tenn., requiring said non-resident defendant to appear on or before the next term of the Chancery Court, to be held in the town of Winchester, Tennessee on the 4th Monday in June next, and plead answer or demur to the complainant's bill, or the same will be taken for confessed, and set for hearing ex parte as to them. Witness my hand, at office, in Winchester, this April 15th, 1873.

Chancery Sales

For May 5th, 1873.

By virtue of a decree of the Chancery Court at Winchester, pronounced at its March (Special) Term, 1873, in the cause of Jas. H. Davis, administrator of Dr. W. Estill, dec'd, vs. Mag. Estill et al. I will sell, to the highest bidder, on a credit of six months, at the Courthouse door in Winchester, Tenn., on Monday, May 5th, 1873, the mountain tract of land described in the pleadings in above cause, containing about 100 acres, adjoining Josiah Williams' "Wild Cat Farm," and others, in civil district No. 16, Franklin county.

Notes, with good and sufficient security, required of the purchaser, and a lien retained until all the purchase money is paid. This April 4th, 1873.

T. H. FINCH, C. & M.

Monday, May 5th, 1873, the Tanyard Lot, and 48-acre tract of land described in the pleadings in above cause. The Tanyard Lot is situated within the corporate limits of Winchester, contains about two acres, upon which are tan-vats, brick shop, and two dwellings. The 48-acre tract is situated about one-half mile north-east from Winchester, adjoining the lands of Col. Turney, Mrs. S. C. Newman and others, and is good tillable land, partially cleared, &c.

TERMS.—Said lands and lot will be sold on a credit of one, two and three years, except the sum of $500 required in cash. Notes, with good and sufficient security, required of the purchaser, and a lien retained, &c. This April 4th, 1873.

T. H. FINCH, C. & M.

By virtue of a decree of the Chancery Court of Franklin county, Tenn., pronounced at its January Term, 1873, in the cause of Pierce Wilhoite vs Sarah A. Wilhoite et al. I will sell, on Monday, May 5th, 1873, at the Courthouse door in Winchester, Tenn., the tract of land described in the pleadings, containing — acres, situated in civil district No. 5, Franklin county, and adjoining the lands of John T. Green, H. J. Crawford and others. Said sale will be made subject to the dower interest of Sarah A. Wilhoite, and to the highest bidder for cash. This April 4th, 1873.

T. H. FINCH, C. & M.

By virtue of a decree of the Chancery Court of Franklin county, Tenn., pronounced at its March (Special) Term, 1873, in the cause of Wm. Quarles et al. vs John B. Benson, I will sell to the highest bidder, on a credit of one and two years, except the sum of 5 per cent., to be paid in cash on day of sale, at the Courthouse door in Winchester, Tenn., on Monday, May 5th, 1873, the tract of land described in the pleadings, situated in civil district No. 3 of said county, adjoining the lands of Elizabeth McElroy, A. M. Crawford and others, and containing 138 acres. This April 4th, 73.

Notes with good security required, and a lien retained.

T. H. FINCH, C. & M.

By virtue of a decree of the Chancery Court of Franklin county, Tenn., pronounced at its March (Special) Term, 1873, in the cause of James H. Davis, adm'r, et al. vs James H. Estill et al. (consolidated cases.) I will sell, on Monday, May 5th, 1873, at the Courthouse door in Winchester, Tenn., "Carriage Academy," situated in the corporate limits of Winchester, to the highest bidder, on a credit of 6, 12 and 18 months, free from the equity of redemption. Notes with good security required of the purchaser, and a lien retained until the whole of the purchase money is paid. This April 4th, 1873.

Non-Resident Notice.

W. F. Kercheval vs James M. Martin and others.

Original Attachment and Inj'n Bill. On motion, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Clerk & Master, from the Bill which is sworn to, that defendant, James Monroe Martin, is either a non-resident of the State of Tennessee, or is absconding and concealing himself; at least, he conceals himself so that the ordinary process of law cannot be served upon him. It is therefore ordered that publication be made for four successive weeks in the Home Journal, a newspaper published in Winchester, Tenn., requiring said non-resident defendant to appear on or before the fourth Monday in June 1873, before the Chancery Court at Winchester, and plead answer or demur to complainant's bill, or the same will be taken for confessed, and set for hearing ex parte as to him. Witness my hand, at office, in Winchester, this March 28th, 1873.

NICHOL & MCGAVOCK,

(Successors to Bradford Nichol.)

Having associated ourselves for the purpose of carrying on a first-class Furniture Establishment, in all its departments,

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL,

at 25 & 27 North College Street, NASHVILLE, TENN.

We take the liberty of calling attention to the fact, promising to offer as cheaply as can possibly be afforded, the largest variety of ever offered in any establishment in this State. The quality of our work shall at all times be number one.

Our Chamber Suits embrace every style that can be seen in any of the larger cities, whilst our agents in New York supply our stock with each pattern of Parlor Furniture, whether of Foreign or Eastern finish, immediately upon its earliest introduction.

We keep in stock both Plain and Handsome Bedsteads, Bureaus, Washstands, Wardrobes, Chairs, Rockers, Tables and Stands, Spring Extension, Hatcases, Settees, Chamber, Parlor, Dining-room, Library, Hall, and Office Suits; Sofa Bedsteads, Sofa Lounges, Bookcases, Secretaries, Cribes, Lounges, Whatnots, Etagères, Towel-racks, Barber Chairs, Safes and Cupboards, Trundle Bedsteads and Mattresses—in fine, everything usually kept in Furniture Warehouses.

We pay particular attention to packing and shipping our goods. We shall be enabled to fill promptly all orders entrusted to us, having an earnest desire to please our friends.

With increased facilities for carrying on business, and a determination to sell our goods as low as any other house in the Trade, we solicit patronage, confident that we will merit favor, and promising our best endeavors to give entire satisfaction.

Parties visiting the Spring Exposition will find it quite a treat examining our goods, which we take pleasure in exhibiting, whether they wish to purchase or not.

Respectfully, NICHOL & MCGAVOCK.

BRADFORD NICHOL.

I herewith take occasion to return grateful acknowledgments to each of my past patrons, and beg they may continue their purchases with the new firm. I shall at all times be in the salesroom, to wait upon and extend such favors as may be in my power. We will be glad that those in arrears call and settle, that the former books may be closed up with as little delay as possible.

Very respectfully, BRADFORD NICHOL.
